From the Mug. Comr.,
Letter no. C. 791 dt 22 2 23
States that the Agent to the Chattram at Mysore has requested that provisions required for the current half year ending 30-6-23 may to be stocked, the Rasdik for the period may be remitted early,
and requests to be informed the Rasdik for the current half year may be drawn monthly as usual.

The Rasdik for the half-year ending 31-12-23 was allowed to be drawn and remitted to the agent at Mysore (vide letter no. 91/Mug 9 15-23-2 dt 20-7-23.
The M.C. now solicits orders as to whether the Rasdik for the current half year may be drawn also monthly

Sir,

In continuation of my ad-interim letter No.633 dated 1st February 1924 re the change of agency of the Benares Chattram to the hands of Bodhayana Ramasastry, I have the honor to submit herewith report No.1 of no date, ~~this day~~ received on the 9th inst. by registered post from Mr.Kasinatha Sastry father of the said Bodhayana Ramasastry stating that his son who has gone on some business to Mysore is expected in a day or two, that he has made necessary arrangements to take charge of the old Chattram building and vessels from Mr. Govinda Sastry, that he has arranged to start feeding in the new chattram from the 6th February 1924 instead of from the 1st as the intervening days were not auspicious, that an expenditure of not less than Rs.50/- on account of certain propitiatory rites viz. "Havana, Homa and Anna Santi" is necessary and that he would incur only very essential expenses and submit a detailed report shortly.

2. In this connection, I beg to invite kind attention to my letter No.633 dated 2nd January 1924 and request the favour of early orders in the matter of drawing and remitting directly or through the agent at Mysore, the tasdik amount due to the chattram for the half-year ending 30th June 1924.

Mysore.

Sir,

I am directed to forward herewith a copy of letter No.C.633 of 1923-24 dated the 22nd February 1924 received from the Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore stating that the new Mysore Chattram building at Benares having been completed, Bhodayana Rama Sastry has taken charge of it on 8th February 1924 from the previous Manager Govinda Sastry.

2. The Chattram Tasdik was being hitherto remitted in advance to the Mysore Agent Ved: Kasi Sesha Subrahmanya Sastry once in six months. As Ved: Sesha Subrahmanya Sastry's hereditary claim to the Agentship has not been recognised and as Bhodayana Rama Sastry has been appointed as Manager, the Muzrai Commissioner has been asked to remit the monthly tasdik to him direct in future.

3. In view of the comparatively large amount to be spent on the charity, it is desirable that some kind of supervision should be exercised of the work of Bhodayana Rama Sastry.

4. It is proposed that Adhoram of Messrs. ~~Jeevanram~~ Mansaram Jeevanram, who was entrusted with the work of repairs to the new chattram and the registration of the chattram sale deed may be asked to exercise supervision over the remain. of the Chattram and to oring to notice any irregularities that he may observe in connection with it.

5. I am to request the favour of being informed if this arrangement may be adopted.

Sir,

Adverting to your letter No. 1253/M.F. 15-23-5 dated 13th March 1924 stating that pending further orders, the Tas-dik amount of the Benares Chattram may be remitted to Podhayana Ramasastry monthly on bills submitted by him and that the charge of R 50/- incurred for propitiatory ceremonies be met from the allotment of the institution, I have the honor to state that the orders of Government were communicated to the Agent and the amount of R 50/- referred to above for which accounts had been received was remitted to him.

2. The agent now wires (copy enclosed) that in future no loan can be raised and that it is impossible to continue choultry and requests urgent orders for money. The Agent has been asked to await orders of Government vide copy of reply telegram sent.

3. In this connection I beg to state that the Tasdik amount was being remitted half.yearly in advance to facilitate purchase of provisions etc in good time and this was continued pending the orders of Government when the question of change of agency was under consideration. Now that the question has been settled and the present agent complains of the inconvenience in not having money on hand I beg to recommend in the past the Tasdik amount may be drawn and remitted once in six months or at least quarterly in advance and the agent directed to submit the accounts of each month by the 10th of the succeeding month.

4. The favour of early orders is solicited.

I am in due receipt of your three letters regarding the chattram affairs. As I was out of station I could not reply them earlier for which please excuse.

In reply I beg to acknowledge receipt of Rs.300/- (Rupees three hundred only) sent as requested on account of the Municipal tax etc, of the chattram building at Hanumanghat. The sum has duly been spent on different heads for which the sum was requested.

Further I have to state that all charitable institutions here in Benares are not exempt from the Mohatarfa tax. They are considered as taxable. Only temples excluding the building portion that might be attached to them are exempt from such tax which please note.

As regards the supervision of the chattram I beg to say that I shall duly undertake the work as ordered and will inform from time to time any irregularities that might be observed in the chattram.
